*Singing at bedsides of those who are struggling;
some with living,
some with dying*

Vashon Threshold Choir

Vashon Threshold Choir brings comfort through song to those at the thresholds of living and dying.

Formed in 2005, we offer "lullabies for the other end of life." There is no charge for our gift of song. We graciously accept donations to support our work.

At your invitation, we send two to four singers to offer soft, restful songs in short sessions designed to comfort and support.

To request a bedside session, please call Barb Adams at 206-567-5264.

Our choir welcomes singers drawn to this sacred end-of-life work. We rehearse on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

To find out how to join us or to visit a rehearsal, please contact Barb Adams at 206-567-5264 or email vashon@thresholdchoir.org.
